

CURRICULUM VITAE of DANIEL J. HARTWIG, CSP, CIH

EDUCATION

University of Wisconsin

Bachelor's degree in Environmental Engineering Sciences

University of Wisconsin

Completed all course work toward MS in Occupational Safety

Tulane School of Public Health

Several post-graduate courses in toxicology and industrial hygiene

Numerous Annual Professional Development seminars and conferences

AWARDS

Recipient of the National Distinguished Service to Safety Award, the highest award presented in the safety profession.

PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIALS

Certified Industrial Hygienist (No. 4910)

Certified Safety Professional (No.) 5590)

Certified by Wisconsin Board of VTAE to teach safety & health subjects

Certified by U.S. EPA and State of Wisconsin to teach asbestos accreditation

Courses

Diplomat of the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene

Certified by National Restaurant Assn. to teach "ServeSafe", food safety course

U.S.C.G. Accredited Vessel Safety Examiner

Member of professional societies:

American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP)

American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA)

National Safety Council (NSC)

Human Factors and Ergonomics Society (HFES)

National Flooring Safety Institute (NFSI)

Other related activities:

Past Chairman of the Business & Industry Division of the National Safety Council

Past Chairman of the Retail Section of the National Safety Council

Past Chairman of the Food & Beverage Section of the National Safety Council

Governor Appointment to State of Wisconsin Hazardous Waste Pollution

Prevention Board

Founder and Past President of Badgerland Chapter of ASSE

Past member of Southeast Wisconsin Health Planning Council's

Advisory Committee on Occupational Safety and Health

Past Chairman of Occupational Safety and Health Advisory Committee

Of the Wisconsin Council of Safety

Member State of Wisconsin Task Force on Legionnaires Disease

Past member of Board of Directors of Madison Area Safety Council

Member of the Power Press Section of the National Safety Council

Authored the Ergonomics chapter of the National Safety Council's "Power Press Safety Manual"

Presented numerous safety and industrial hygiene papers to such groups as the NSC, ASSE and AIHA

EXPERIENCE

General Health & Safety Services, LLC, Punta Gorda, FL (1978 to present) President. Provides consultation and expert testimony in many specialized areas of safety, human factors and industrial hygiene including: Premises Liability, Product Liability, Chemical and Noise Exposures, Warnings Evaluation, Cause-Effect Relationship of Injury or Illness and Slip and Falls. Expert witness and consulting experience in a wide variety of environments including: construction sites, public buildings, restaurants, retail stores, hospitals, manufacturing and assembly plants, camp grounds, and homes.

Waukesha County Technical Institute, Waukesha, Wisconsin. (1977-1979) Instructor/Consultant. Developed and taught courses titled "Occupational Health" and "Environmental Instrumentation and Sampling" and "Safety Management". Special consultation included developing and conducting seminars under a program funded by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Wisconsin Council of Safety, Madison, Wisconsin. (1975-1978). Director of Programs. Responsible for all safety and health training programs and consultation activities for 4,000-member organization. Responsibilities included developing and conducting new training programs and remaining informed of current and proposed safety and health regulations. Editor of Wisconsin "Safety and Health Report," monthly update newsletter. Extensive lecturing and speaking experience at programs for schools, municipalities, private organizations and government agencies. Consultation activities included developing safety programs for private industry, worker compensation consulting and safety problem solving.

Self Employed, Milwaukee, WI (1973-1975) Safety and Industrial Hygiene Consultant. Provided safety and health audits of automobile dealerships, grocery stores and other retail establishments. Assisted clients in developing safety programs and eliminating safety and health hazards.

Liminetics Inc., Milwaukee, Wisconsin. (1971-1973) Environmental Consultant. Supervisor of Industrial Monitoring Department. Directed all stack sampling, ambient air monitoring, industrial hygiene, safety and noise survey projects. Responsibilities included proposal writing, program design, data analysis, report writing, and court testimony when required. Responsible for development of sampling instruments. Provided technical advice to municipalities and private industry regarding safety and health concerns.

City of Oak Creek, Water and Sewer Utility, Oak Creek, Wisconsin. (1969-1970) Safety and Health inspection of utility construction projects and facilities. Conducted pollution control operations. Assisted in general water quality assurance.