

Expert Witness – CV

Mr. Matthew Gee, Aviation Consultant

Website and other professional profiles

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/matthew-gee-43062820/>

Company website: <https://mgaviationconsultancy.net/>

Qualifications and professional memberships specific to working role.

- Diploma, with distinction: Aviation Leasing and Finance 2025, City Colleges Dublin, Ireland
  - International Business Aviation Council (IBAC) accreditation as IS-BAO auditor with Fixed Wing, Operations and Special Regulatory Qualification endorsements, to conduct audits, worldwide.
  - International Business Aviation Council (IBAC) accreditation as an IS-BAH auditor, to conduct audits of Ground Handling companies worldwide.
  - Senior Quality Assurance, Senior and Lead Auditor 2025, SOFEMA Aviation, online learning.
-
- Full member of UK Expert Witness Institute
  - Full member of UK National Expert Witness Agency
  - Member of European Business Aviation Association
  - Member of Irish Business General Aviation Association

Professional specialism

- Specialise in providing Expert Witness services to cover all aspects of aviation operations, aviation ground handling and aviation insurance related cases, offering 30 plus years of working industry knowledge.

Current professional roles

2024 – present / Owner / MG Aviation Consultancy/

- Provides bespoke aviation consultancy services including Auditing, Expert Witness and aircraft operator consultancy to industry worldwide.

2017 – present / Director and Head of Flight Operations, Six West

- Working as the companies Accountable Manager for flying operations, responsibility for worldwide operations of large transport aircraft and ensuring regulatory compliance and safety.

2014 – 2017 – Head of Ferry Flight Services / CAE Parc Aviation

- Worked as the Head of the companies Ferry Flight Services department, within Technical Support Services. Employed as the Accountable Manager for flying and responsible for worldwide operations of large transport aircraft to ensure regulatory compliance and safety.

1995 – 2014, prior aviation working experience is detailed on my full professional CV which can be supplied upon request.

Areas of professional responsibility

- Regular speaker at industry events within Europe. Subjects regularly covered are aircraft repossession as well as lease transitions and lessee / lessor relationships.

Teaching Roles

Hold a qualification to enable teaching and training whilst working within my last airline role. This delivered both training and line checking of company operations control personnel.

Publications

I have written 5 detailed expert witness reports for large law firms based within the USA, contents are case specific and remain confidential.

I have additionally written 2 detailed expert witness reports for law firms based within the United Kingdom. Contents are case specific and remain confidential.

I regularly contribute to company social media (LinkedIn) posts, providing opinion and references to industry developments.

As part of my work as an accountable manager, I regularly publish internal flight safety documents and operating manuals.

Deposition experience

I have provided testimony (deposition) for four cases that were heard within the United States of America.

Training, accreditation and experience as an expert witness

Full membership of the Expert Witness Institute since 2025. Part of this membership includes continued professional development courses as part continuous professional development learning.

My role as an accountable manager of an aircraft operator and additionally as an auditor also requires extensive annual continuous professional development learning.