

KARIN GEPP, PSY.D.

(929) 437-4377 • drkgepp@gmail.com

Licensed in NY, NJ • PSYPACT Authorized

Professional Profile

Licensed clinical psychologist specializing in forensic, civil, and occupational psychological evaluations. Practice is evaluation-focused, with secondary outpatient psychotherapy and supervision.

Education

Psy.D., Clinical Psychology

Antioch University New England

M.S., Clinical Psychopharmacology

(in progress)

Fairleigh Dickinson University

M.S., Clinical Psychology

Antioch University New England

M.A., General Psychology

City College of New York

B.A., Anthropology & Sociology;

Psychology

Wells College

Licensure

NY & NJ Licensed Psychologist

PSYPACT (APIT/TAP)

Independent Forensic & Assessment Psychologist

Multiple Contracted Roles | 2019–Present

Conduct civil, criminal, occupational, and administrative psychological evaluations for insurers, correctional systems, public agencies, and legal stakeholders, including work capacity, fitness-for-duty, risk, causality, and MMI.

Selected Engagements

- CFG Health Network - pre-parole & risk
- MAKRAF - IMEs
- Psychological Dimensions - pre-employment
- iMPROve Health - peer review
- Work Comp Psych Net / PAX Health - workers' compensation

Director of Assessment Services & Senior Clinical Supervisor

Avita Integrative Care, LLC | 2018–Present

Provide outpatient psychotherapy to adults; conduct psychological and neuropsychological assessments; supervise clinicians. Clinical work maintained secondary to forensic practice.

Prior Professional Roles

Prior roles have include neuropsychology testing psychologist, disability consultant, SSA consultant and reviewer, health media reviewer and board member, and veteran telehealth provider.

Training

- Postdoctoral training: ORO Consulting (forensic evaluations)
- APA Internship: Trenton Psychiatric Hospital
- Forensic/Neuropsychology Practica: Ann Klein Forensic Center; Whiting Forensic Division; Sing Sing CF; Butler Hospital/Brown Medical School