

EDWARD C. GUERRA

Independent Crane Operations & Risk Expert

786-578-2567 | edward.guerra@craneriskauthority.com | expertcranewitness.com

SUMMARY

Independent crane operations and safety professional with more than 35 years of experience in mobile, tower, and overhead crane operations. Extensive background in lift planning, crane setup, inspection practices, supervision, and field execution across a wide range of project environments. Experienced in evaluating crane operations, lift execution, and safety practices with reference to applicable OSHA regulations, ASME standards, and industry best practices.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

MOBILE CRANE OPERATOR / LIFT DIRECTOR

Various Crane Service Providers — Pennsylvania & Florida

1994 – Present

Responsibilities included crane operation, lift planning, supervision, equipment inspection, rigging coordination, and adherence to applicable safety and operational standards. Experience spans mobile, tower, telescopic, and overhead cranes on commercial, industrial, and infrastructure projects.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Crane operations and lift execution
- Lift planning and critical lift evaluation
- Rigging and signaling practices
- Crane inspection and maintenance considerations
- Load chart interpretation and configuration analysis
- Incident analysis and causation

EDUCATION & TRAINING

EMT / PARAMEDIC CERTIFICATION

- Broward College

UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

- Parris Island, SC

CERTIFICATIONS & TRAINING

- National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators (NCCCO)
- Lift Director, Rigger, and Signalperson credentials
- OSHA crane-related safety training
- Crane inspection training
- Commercial Driver License (CDL)

DISCLAIMER

This curriculum vitae is provided for general informational purposes only. Credentials and experience do not imply expertise in every matter. Opinions are formed independently based on the specific facts, evidence, and applicable standards relevant to each engagement.