Independent PhD Criminologist, Senior Systems Auditor, and Civic Leader specializing in the forensic evaluation of law enforcement operations, corrections data structures, and public safety institutional policies. A practitioner-scholar expert at translating complex, high-density public safety datasets into clear, defensible compliance audits for courts, municipal oversight boards, and civil/criminal defense counsel. Utilizing advanced quantitative methodologies (Logistic Regression, Chi-Square), evaluates institutional adherence to federal mandates, state standard operating procedures (SOPs), and data integrity standards. Anchored by an active civic leadership footprint and a career-long 100% "audit-ready" standard for high-stakes regulatory documentation.
