

Ahmer K. Ghori, MD

Board Certified & Harvard Trained Spine Surgeon

Active Spine Surgeon – ~400 Spine Surgeries Per Year

Spine Causation, Complications, Indications & Standard of Care Expert: Available for medical record review, deposition, or trial NATIONWIDE

Fort Wayne, Indiana | (440) 897-8029 | ghorispine@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Board-certified orthopaedic spine surgeon with more than 10 years of independent surgical practice specializing in the diagnosis and surgical treatment of complex spinal disorders. Partner at Orthopaedics Northeast in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Training includes Harvard Orthopaedic Surgery Residency and a combined Orthopaedic / Neurosurgical Spine Fellowship at the Norton Leatherman Spine Center. Dr. Ghori maintains an active high-volume surgical practice performing approximately 400 spine procedures annually, with more than 4,000 spine surgeries performed during independent practice.

Areas of Clinical Expertise

- Degenerative cervical and lumbar spine disease
- Cervical and lumbar radiculopathy
- Cervical myelopathy
- Pediatric scoliosis and spinal deformity
- Spinal trauma and fracture stabilization
- Spinal tumors and metastatic disease
- Revision spine surgery
- Complications of spine surgery
- Standard of care in orthopaedic spine surgery

Representative Surgical Experience

- Approximately 400 spine operations performed annually
- More than 4,000 spine procedures performed during independent practice
- Anterior Cervical Discectomy and Fusion (ACDF)
- Cervical Disc Arthroplasty
- Lumbar decompression and discectomy
- Lumbar fusion procedures (TLIF, PLIF, ALIF)

- Revision spine surgery
- Thoracolumbar trauma stabilization
- Spinal tumor decompression and stabilization
- Complex spinal deformity reconstruction

Medico-Legal Experience

Reviewed more than 20 medico-legal cases involving spinal surgery and spinal disorders including both plaintiff and defense matters.

- Medical record review and case analysis
- Standard-of-care evaluation
- Medical causation analysis
- Preparation of literature-supported expert opinions
- Deposition preparation and testimony
- Trial testimony

Professional Experience

Partner – Orthopaedics Northeast, Fort Wayne Indiana (2015–Present). Orthopaedic spine surgeon performing cervical and lumbar spine surgery including degenerative pathology, trauma, tumors, deformity, and revision spine surgery.

Education and Training

- Spine Surgery Fellowship – Norton Leatherman Spine Center (2015–2016)
- Orthopaedic Surgery Residency – Harvard Combined Orthopaedic Residency Program (2010–2015)
- Doctor of Medicine – University of Michigan Medical School (2006–2010)
- B.A. Economics & B.A. Chemistry – Miami University, Summa Cum Laude (2002–2006)

Board Certification

American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery – Board Certified